Snooker 12

Briefing:

In the opening everything is bi-directional, in the closing it is as numbered. The combo can be taken any way as long as you do both parts.

Colors or numbers, may be taken as many times as needed but remember your reds can only be taken once.

The finish jump is live once you have completed the opening sequence, after the horn has blown, when you direct your dog to it or when I say "Thank You". Finish jump is bidirectional and just needs to be taken to stop the clock.
